not gonna be your last

Nobody tells the truth any more
They don't say what needs to be said
Bottled up and tounge tied and foolin' themselves
Their lives go where they are led

But you try not to show it but I know how you feel

So stop starin' out the window
And livin' in the past
'Cuz this ain't your first rodeo
And it's not gonna be your last

Well he's just a train wreck waitin' to happen
Barrelin' out of control
And you're so much more than he'll ever deserve
You're a rose in second hand clothes.

Well seein' you happy that's all that I want

So stop starin' out the window
And wishin' for the past
'Cuz this ain't your first rodeo
And it's not gonna be your last no no no

This ain't your first rodeo
And it's not gonna be your last
No it's not gonna be your last no no no
It ain't your first rodeo
And it's not gonna be your last
