These days are so long as I wander 'round
Every one's a stranger and they make no sound
There's nothin' they can say that can take this pain from me

I wonder if you hear me when I call for you at night
And my lonely moments when I just can't see the light
I hope that you can feel my love from wherever you may be

They say there's a time for every season and winters come and go
But I'm lost in a world of endless cold
I've tried and tried and tried to get across that line
But I've never found I've never found the words to make you mine

Now I've got a lot more livin' that is left to do
I know I'll find a reason to make it through
But forever I will hold you in this heart of mine

They say there's a time for every season and winters come and go
And I'm lost in a world of endless cold
Now I've got all the reasons but I can not make them right
I'll never find I'll never find the words to make you mine

I wish you could see deep within my soul
All that I could give and all you'll never know
The way I feel for you, you could feel that way for me
But baby it isn't meant to be

Now I'm searchin' for my place in the grand design
But I've never found the words to make you mine no
Lord I've never found the words to make you mine
